The background is a dark, out-of-focus scene of a party. In the foreground, several people are visible, some appearing to be dancing. The lighting is warm and golden, with numerous small, bright points of light scattered throughout, creating a bokeh effect. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.

A dimly lit interior space, possibly a grand hall or a large room. In the center, a large, ornate chandelier hangs from the ceiling. Below it, a large window or doorway is visible, through which a bright, hazy light is streaming. Several silhouettes of people are visible near the window, some standing and some appearing to be in conversation. The overall atmosphere is quiet and somewhat somber.

A group of people, including men and women, are gathered around a table outdoors. They appear to be in a meeting or discussion, looking at documents and papers on the table. The background shows a blurred outdoor setting with trees and a building. The text "MAIN FIDA BHI HOON" is overlaid in a white serif font within a gold-bordered box in the center of the image.

A festive scene with a group of people celebrating. In the center, a man in a white turban and a woman in a red and white patterned sari are smiling. They are surrounded by other people, some holding up their phones. A Christmas tree is visible in the background, and pink confetti is falling around them. The overall atmosphere is joyful and celebratory.

We Found The Newest Bridal Entry Song For 2018 And It's The Bomb!

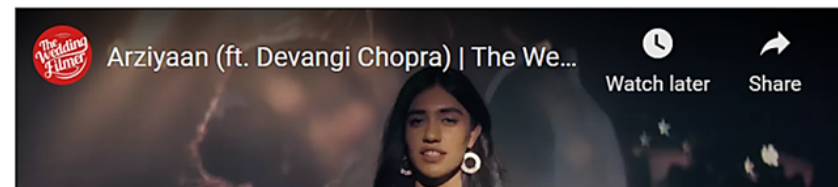

BY Latha Sunadh | 12 Jan, 2018 | 1773 views | 1 min read

If you thought that the wedding season is over because hellooo 2018, you are so wrong. We still have two months of winter bliss and we'll definitely make the most of it. New outfits, new ideas and of course, super new bridal entry songs. Yep, we are kinda partial to this - because much as we love Din Shagna Da, it's kinda on a downward spiral in our playlist.

Too much.

So what's new you ask? 'Arziyaan' this new song with the most soulful lyrics that was put together by the good guys at The Wedding Filmer.

It's contemporary folk setting paired with Devangi Chopra's voice is all the magic that's needed to make any wedding special! This song was previously featured in Bipasha Basu & Karan Singh Grover's wedding trailer, and it was a real popular one then and it's back again now.

Here are all my favourite bridal entry songs, and I promise to keep updating this list every time I unearth a new gem –

#1 Chal Le Chal by Devangi Chopra

The Best Bridal Entry Songs: Updated!

This is the brand new song released by The Wedding Filmer just yesterday! The singer, Devangi Chopra, is FIFTEEN years old. Incredible, right? And her angelic voice lends such a heavenly quality to the tune. Such a good option for when you enter the wedding venue as a bride. Imagine entering to cello and guitar strings strumming! The song is soft, the cello hauntingly beautiful, and the lyrics make you melt. Sang le chal...

Awwwww!!! ❤️

Psst...just in case you're wondering, that beautiful lehenga Devangi is wearing is designed by Arpita Mehta – the go to designer for mirror work on pretty ensembles for young girls.
